CHARUDET SMITH,

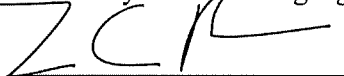

STIPULATION IN SUPPORT
OF APPLICATION FOR
7TH OR SUBSEQUENT
ORDER OF CONTINUANCE AND
12TH ORDER OF CONTINUANCE

Defendant.

24 Mag. 00551
-----X

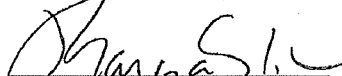

The United States of America and the defendant jointly request and agree that the time period from 1/8/2025 to 2/5/2025 be excluded from the computation of the period within which an information or indictment must be filed, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(b) and (h)(7). The parties submit that there is good cause for an additional exclusion of time ). This charge carries a mandatory minimum of 15 years' imprisonment. The parties have been exploring a possible disposition of this case prior to trial. Defense counsel, Isabelle Kirshner, Esq. and Thomas Rotko, Esq., retained a psychiatrist to examine the defendant. Counsel provided the psychiatrist's report to the Government in August. After reviewing the report, the Government concluded that it would be worthwhile to have a second psychiatrist examine the defendant and prepare a report with respect to the defendant's competency. On September 11, 2024, with the consent of the parties, the Honorable Victoria Reznik ordered Dr. Stuart Kleinman, a psychiatrist, to examine the defendant to determine whether he can understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him and whether he can assist properly in his defense, and to prepare written findings regarding his conclusions. After reviewing extensive medical and psychiatric records relating to the defendant, Dr. Kleinman has scheduled an evaluation with the defendant in mid-January. Accordingly, the adjournment is necessary.

By the following signatures we agree and consent to the exclusion of time noted above:

The defendant understands that he/she has a right to be charged by indictment or information, and to have a trial before a judge or jury, within a specified time (excluding certain time periods) under the Constitution and Rules and Laws of the United States identified above.
